Employment Application Disclaimer

We would like to thank you for showing an interest in working here. We would like to give you a realistic view of the position for which you are applying. Please read the following carefully:

The primary purpose of this facility is to provide care for other people's furry family members. This business is seasonal by nature and you can expect your hours or days to vary according to our needs. We realize that working under these conditions can be difficult for some people, but your dependability in this area is critical. If you don't think you can be that flexible, this may not be the job for you.

If you do not have a genuine love of animals, you do not need to be here. Keep in mind that we are seeking people who are mature enough to understand and accept the responsibilities that will be placed on them. You are not going to be paid to sit around and play with cute little puppies all day. Someone has to clean up after them, feed them, administer medications, and see to their comfort and security. This requires a great deal of hard work and dedication.

While working here you may be exposed to: filth, loud noises, cleaning chemicals, a variety of parasites and zoonoses (medical ailments that people can acquire from animals) and the ever present risk of being bitten, scratched or mauled. These are the potential hazards you face and accept by working here.

You should also know that you will be expected to perform any task that we require of you. We will try to make the best use of your skills and experience, but don't expect to be exempt from the more mundane and unpleasant chores that need to be performed. Floors need to be mopped, cages cleaned and trash cans emptied. If you get ill at the idea of cleaning up diarrhea or vomit, then you are in the wrong place. If you can't pick up a 40 pound bag of dog food by yourself, this isn't the right place for you. If you are allergic to animal hair or sensitive to cleaning chemicals, now is the time to leave.

You must be reliable, patient, intelligent and capable of independent action. If you have to be constantly supervised, or if you cannot find things to do on your own, then you are not the person we are looking for. Also note that you will need to pass a background check, and our facility is drug-, alcohol- and smoke-free

If you are still interested, please sign below indicating that you agree to these terms and complete the application.
